

Media Contact:

Marianne Gustafson

marianneg@jobsearchpublishers.com

Job Search Publishers and Chase Paymentech Secure Processing

March 3, 2008 – Job Search Publishers LLC, the developer and online portal for The EmployMentor Guide©, the leading job-search organizer product line for individuals who are job hunting or participants in executive searches, today announced that they have contracted with Chase Paymentech to power the secure credit card transactions of www.jobsearchpublishers.com.

“Chase Paymentech is the leading secure transaction processor in the United States,” stated Marianne Gustafson, Publisher, adding, “This relationship continues our commitment to our customers to insure the highest level of secure card transactions for purchasing our electronically downloaded products. As before, no lists or records are retained or distributed to third parties as a result of our customers’ purchases.”

About Job Search Publishers LLC

Organize your job search with the leading downloadable products from the founding team at Job Search Publishers LLC, who developed and obtained the copyrights to the EmployMentorGuide(c), creating its electronic format for the Internet. Our content contributors, staff, and Advisory Board are experienced in executive search, corporations, small businesses, college recruiting, and professional services.